

Let the trail draw you down to the water.

Hiking

Five miles of trails are open daily from dawn until dusk.

Ten Minute Loop Trail (0.2 mi.) Short loop trail begins and ends at the South Slough Interpretive Center.

North Creek Trail (1.4 mi.) Wildlife viewing trail leads to the Sloughside Marsh. Dog walkers are asked to avoid the North Creek Trail.

North Creek Spur (0.15 mi.) Ends at view of North Creek Marsh.

Middle Creek Trail (0.4 mi.) Connects the Ten Minute Loop Trail with the access road and the Hidden Creek Trail.

Hidden Creek Trail (0.7 mi.) Follows Hidden Creek to the skunk cabbage boardwalk and the marsh observation deck.

Big Cedar Trail (0.26 mi.) Wheelchair-accessible trail leads from the lower parking lot to the marsh observation deck. Visitors may request a gate key at the South Slough Interpretive Center and drive to the lower trailhead parking lot.

Railroad Trail (0.4 mi.) Follows the grade of an old logging railroad.

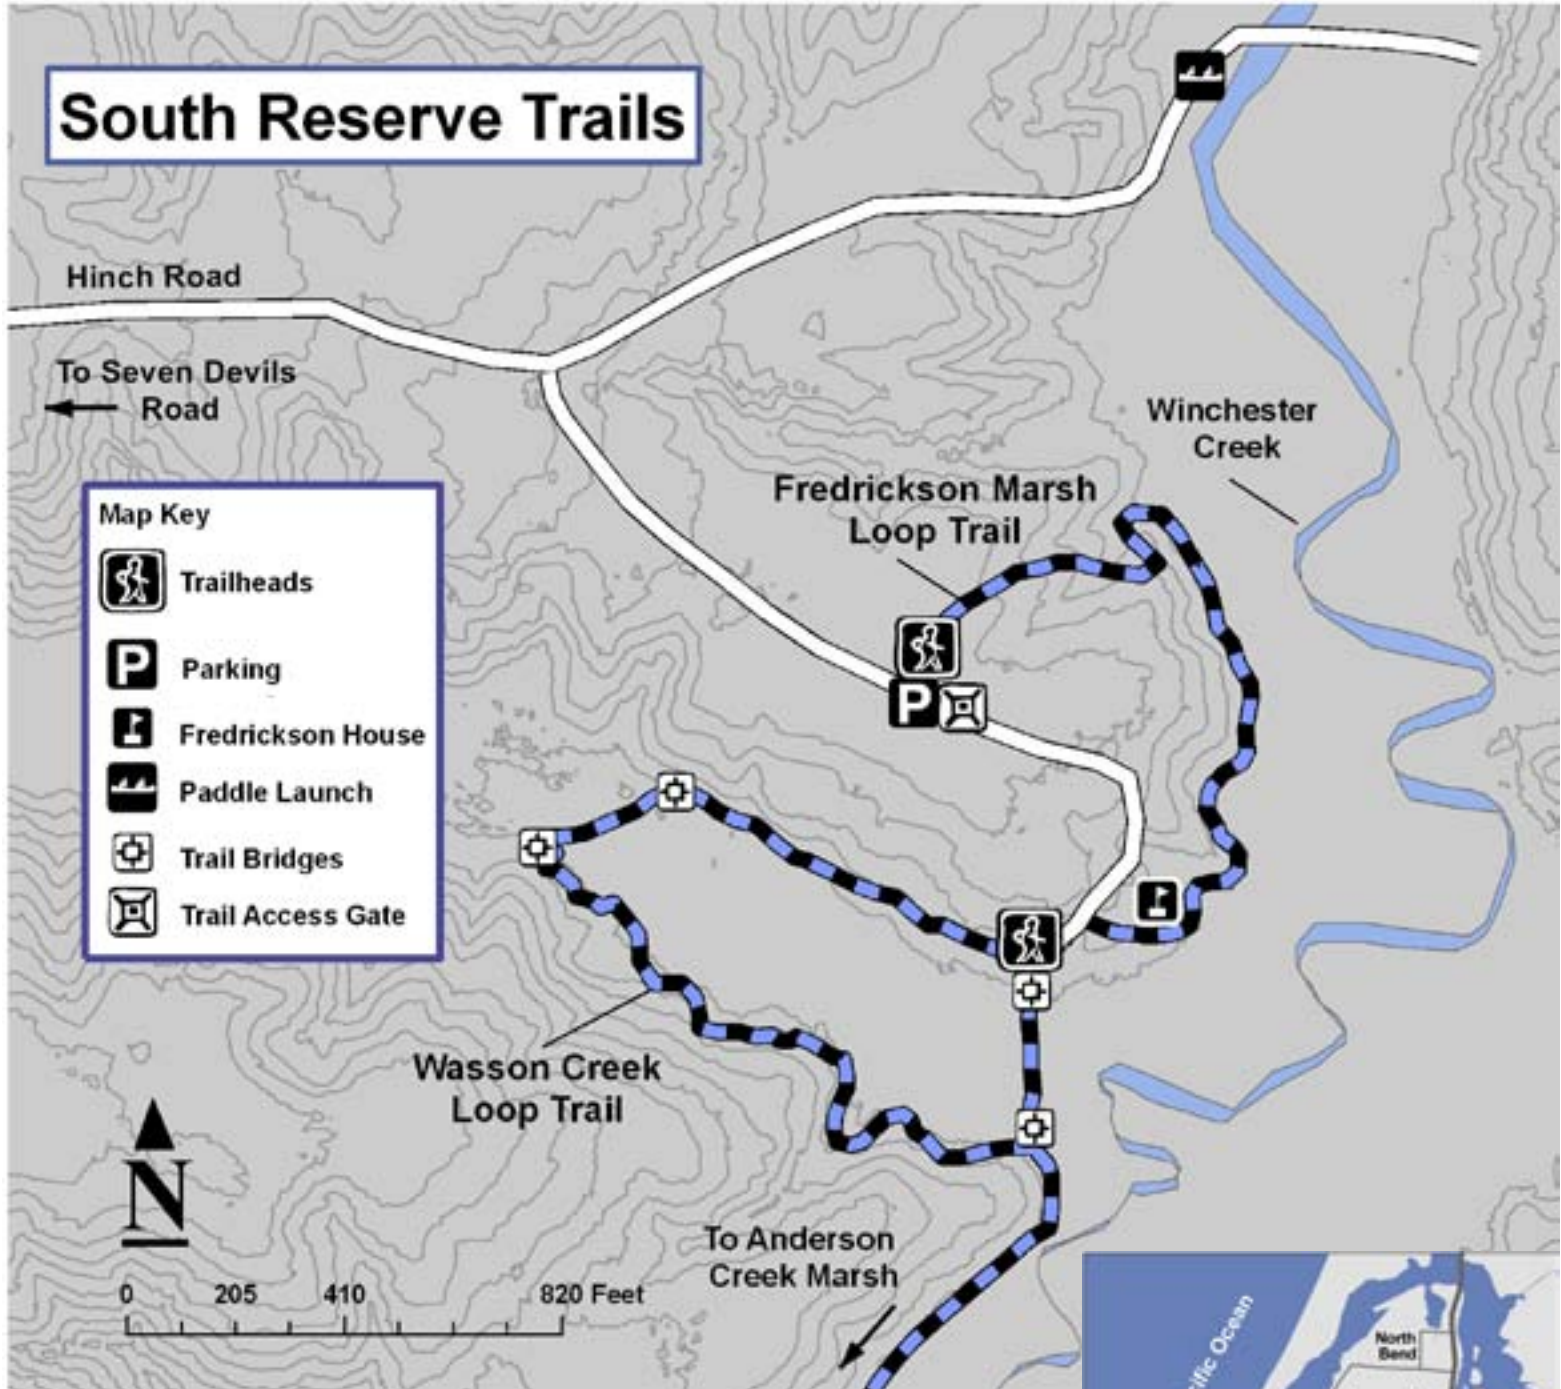

Sloughside Spur (0.1 mi.) Follows top of old levee to view of marsh and estuary.

Marshside Spur (0.07 mi.) Follows marsh edge along estuary shoreline.

Tunnel Trail (0.4 mi.) Parallels the Railroad Trail.

Please Remember: • Dogs are allowed on leashes. • Dog walkers are asked to avoid the North Creek Trail. • Pack out your trash and your pets' waste. • Trash collection is not available.

For more information visit us at southsloughestuary.org

Wasson Creek & Fredrickson Marsh loop trails (each 0.5 mi.) Two loop trails highlight forests and freshwater marshes. Wasson Creek trail may be closed occasionally due to high water. Access is by way of Hinch Road (see map above).

Paddling

Kayaks and canoes can be launched at Hinch Bridge or in Charleston. Check tides and weather. A paddler's brochure is available at the South Slough Interpretive Center. Guided paddling tours are available.

Please Remember:

- Dogs are allowed on leashes.
- Dog walkers are asked to avoid the North Creek Trail.
- Pack out your trash and your pets' waste.
- Trash collection is not available.

For more information visit us at southsloughestuary.org